2013 Judges' Biographies

Bo Bengtson – Beginning in Sweden in 1959 and since 1980 in the United States, has bred and exhibited Whippets. He has also, to a lesser degree, been involved in Greyhounds and Afghans. He was approved to judge all Sighthound breeds by the FCI in 1976 and is currently approved to judge 32 breeds in 5 different groups under that system. He is the editor of several dog books, including the award winning Best In Show; The World of Show Dogs and Dog Shows and The Whippet. He was publisher and editor of the Sighthound Review from 1984 to 1997, is past editor of The Afghan Hound Review and of Poodle Variety. In 1997 he founded, in partnership with Paul Lepiane, the monthly Dogs In Review which was sold in 2001 to Bow Tie, Inc. but to which he still contributes.

Judy Bennett – Judy and her husband Dean acquired their Samoyeds in 1973 and both achieved their CD Titles. Her original conformation Samoyeds were from early Polar Mist line. Judy produced Group Winners and placers, both in the United States and internationally. Her dogs have taught her so much and gave her a passion for soundness, movement, beauty and the amazing temperament of the Samoyed. Judy began judging in 1992, and is now approved to judge Siberian Huskies, Pembroke Welsh Corgis, Australian Shepherds and Junior Showmanship. Protecting the soundness and breed type of these breeds has become one of her highest goals. Passing on this deep love and appreciation for dogs to our next generation is an upmost priority. Judy feels we have a short window of opportunity to gently mold our youth into competition of tomorrow and to become heirs of our dreams.

Mary Anne Brocious – Mary Anne is a breeder of Old English Sheepdogs and has bred and/or owned over 100 AKC Champions under the kennel name Qubic. Her OES have achieved Best in Shows, Best in Specialty Shows and multiple group wins with dogs competing successfully in Obedience and Agility also. She has bred multiple Register of Merit Dogs and Bitches and top producing sires and dams including the only Top 20 winner to produce a Top 20 winner in breed history. Mary Anne is Chair of Judges Education for the Old English Sheepdog Club of America and Show Chair for the Ann Arbor Kennel Club where she also has served as their AKC delegate. She judges the Herding and Working Groups and has had the privilege to judge in Australia, China, Taiwan, Mexico and several European countries.

Connie Clark – Connie, a member of the Santa Barbara Kennel Club, began exhibiting and breeding Wire Fox Terriers in 1977. In the early 1980s, she apprenticed with Clay and Bergit Coady and in 1985 began handling professionally, specializing in the hard-coated Terriers. In 2000 she moved from Illinois to California and retired from handling. Connie began judging in 2007.

Nioma Stoner Coen – The first litter of Macdega Shelties was whelped in 1964. All of their dogs trace many times to their pillar sire BIS Ch. Halstor's Peter Pumpkin ROM, the breed's top sire with 160 American champions. Nioma and her husband feel fortunate to have been owned by so many special Shelties who have contributed to their breed. In 2005, they were honored by the American Kennel Club as breeders of the Year for the Herding Group. Since receiving her judge's license, Nioma has had the pleasure of evaluating the efforts of breeders in the U.S., Canada, Denmark, Japan and China.

Thomas W. Coen – The first litter of Macdega Shelties was whelped in 1964. All of their dogs trace many times to their pillar sire BIS Ch. Halstor's Peter Pumpkin ROM, the breed's top sire with 160 American champions. Thomas and his wife feel fortunate to have been owned by so many special Shelties who have contributed to their breed. Each dog must be owned or co-owned by the Junior Handler or by the Junior Handler's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandfather or grandmother, including step and half relations or by a member of the Junior Handler's household. A dog that has been excused or disqualified by a Breed Judge or by a Bench Show Committee may still be handled in Junior Showmanship if eligible to compete in Obedience Trials. A dog that has been rejected, dismissed, or excused by the Veterinarian for the protection of the other dogs at the show or for the protection of the dog excused may not be handled in Junior Showmanship.

Junior Handlers who win a third Novice Class with competition present after the closing of entries for a show may transfer their entry from the Novice Class to the Open Class provided that this transfer is made by the Superintendent at least one half-hour prior to the scheduled start of any regular conformation judging or one half-hour prior to the scheduled start of Junior Showmanship judging at the show, whichever is earlier.

Winning of first place in an Open Class at this show may qualify or count toward qualification for entry in certain future Showmanship Classes which have been approved to date by AKC online at www.akc.org

Junior Handler's must include their AKC Junior Handler identification number on the entry blank.

You may obtain your number by calling the AKC Event Records Department (919) 233-9767.

There is no refund of entry fee for duplicate entry. There will be a $2.00 fee charged for cancellation of entry prior to closing of entries.
10. There is no provision offered for un-entered dogs at this show.
11. Declination of Entries. The Santa Barbara Kennel Club may decline any entries for cause and may refuse to receive or may remove any dog on account of disease, viciousness or other causes, and no one shall have any claim or recourse against the Kennel Club or any official thereof.
